

The FCC should NOT eliminate New Jersey's Do Not Call Law. The CITIZENS of this state believe it is a very good law. The interests of telemarketers should NEVER be considered over those of citizens. Do you know anyone who does not become annoyed after one of these phone calls at dinner time?